About PACE OSBA

November 29th, 2019

PACE is the largest property and liability risk pool of education organizations in the state representing more than 200 school districts.

How to join PACE

PACE is a voluntary association of school districts in the state of Ohio that provides property and liability insurance coverage at a reduced cost compared to what individual districts would pay on their own. To join PACE, a school district must:

1. Be a public school district in the state of Ohio.
2. Have a minimum of 50 students.
3. Agree to comply with the rules and regulations of PACE.

Once a school district has joined PACE, it can participate in all of the organization's benefits, including:

- Property and liability insurance coverage at a reduced cost.
- Access to a dedicated team of actuaries and underwriters to help manage insurance risks.
- Opportunities for professional development and training.
- Networking opportunities with other PACE members.

To join PACE, a school district must complete an application and submit it to the organization. The application can be found on the PACE website.

About OSBA

The Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA) is the largest voluntary bar association in the state of Ohio. OSBA provides legal assistance to members of the bar and the public, as well as education and training opportunities for attorneys.

OSBA offers a variety of services to its members, including:

- Legal assistance to members of the bar and the public.
- Continuing legal education programs.
- Networking opportunities for attorneys.
- Advocacy on behalf of the legal profession.

To become a member of OSBA, an attorney must meet the requirements set by the Ohio Supreme Court. These requirements include:

- Holding a law degree from an accredited institution.
- Admitting to the practice of law in the state of Ohio.
- Meeting the requirements for continuing legal education.

OSBA provides a range of benefits to its members, including access to legal assistance, networking opportunities, and continuing legal education programs.

To learn more about OSBA and its services, visit the organization's website.
